

Bridging two worlds

By Dinah Lin, MBA

Saturday, December 1, 2:00 pm Library Community Rm.

Born in Shanghai and raised in the U.S., Dinah also lived 30+ years in 5 countries in Asia, giving her a multi-cultural perspective. Her talk will include:

Valuable Life Lessons - turning life's challenges into opportunities

Insights Into China - some key things and helpful phrases to know

Speaking With Pictures - selected photos of her decade in Beijing

Dinah Lin previously held senior positions in Fortune 500 companies, hi-tech start-ups and the (first) Bush administration. She holds an MBA in Finance/Business Economics from Columbia Business School.